The Foundation's program Case Managers, under the supervision of the Program Manager, collect information per grant requirements of clients requesting assistance. Case managers assess client eligibility, corroborating that clients in the program have not been previously served or are participating in programs with the same funding source. Initially, all households are rapidly re-housed and provided a small amount of assistance, such as one month of rental assistance and a security deposit. After a family is in housing, case managers conduct assessments to determine the clients' needs. The Foundation evaluates households at the beginning of each month to decide whether they will require assistance for another month. Financial assistance and case management are based on a household's individual needs. Clients never receive funds
